

Quiz Due June 5

1. ___ The most important component of diagnosing plant health problems is proper identification of the _____.
2. ___ Determining if a problem is normal or _____ must be considered _____.
3. _____ Symptoms are the changes in _____, growth or development of a plant.
4. _____ Often, plants respond the same way to _____ problems, and diagnosis based only on 1 or 2 _____ may be inaccurate.
5. Whenever possible, examine the _____ of the affected plant.
6. _____ are evidence of the biologic agent causing damage.
7. Abiotic diseases are caused by ____-_____ agents, such as people.
8. ___ Biotic diseases are abnormal conditions of a plant caused by _____.
9. _____ Foliar problems rarely result in plant _____.
10. _____ can be caused by rope or twine left on rootballs.
11. _____ Sudden Decline is usually the result of _____ disorders.
12. _____ Fireblight is a _____ disorder.
13. Conifers often appear to have foliar disorders in _____ due to normal needle drop.

(Continues on page 32)

Name: _____
 IAH No.: _____
 Phone: _____
 Email: _____

Send answers to: info@inla1.org -or- mail to INLA, 7915 S. Emerson Ave., #247, Indianapolis, IN 46237

IAH Quiz

Each quiz will be worth a .5 (one-half) CEU!

The Indiana Accredited Horticulturist Committee is pleased to provide you an opportunity to earn CEUs (continuing education units) in each issue of the Indiana Nursery and Landscape News.

The IAH quiz offered in each issue can be completed by anyone who is an "Active" (current) IAH (initial or masters).

Each quiz will be worth a .5 (one-half) CEU (continuing education unit) for the completion of the bi-monthly quiz with a pass rate of 80%. Over a 2-year period, you could earn up to 6 CEUs if you take and pass every quiz!

The INLA office will grade the quiz. Questions and answers have been provided by the IAH committee.

Thank you and good luck studying!

The Indiana Accredited Horticulturist Committee

Co-Chairs

- George Brenn, Four Seasons Landscaping Nursery
- Gabriel Gluesenkamp, Designscape Hort Services

Committee Members

- Brian Bunge, Twixwood Nursery
- Wayne Gruber, Niemeyer's Landscape Supply
- Jim Messmer
- Melissa Mravec, Allen Landscape
- Jodie Overmyer, Marshall County Soil and Water

GEORGE BRENN'S IAH QUIZ (CONT.)

14. There are many species of Powdery Mildew, but they are _____-_____.
15. Needle cast begins at the _____ of the plant and moves _____.
16. Diagnosis of insect damage includes observation of the actual _____ or its _____ .
17. _____ fungus is often associated with the excrement of Aphids or Scale Insects.
18. The majority of root problems are _____ disorders.
19. Anaerobic pathogens most often reside in _____ .
20. _____ People Pressure Diseases are _____ disorders.